If Mrs Borgni likes to answer these letters, just tell me. I would give her my copy of the London Mercury Book — Gladly & a million thanks.

If she would very kindly & said (to the Lady) that Knole was included — & the climate changed in sympathy with the age — & gave her my kind regards — And then to the boy of 16, perhaps she could say that 'Elizabethan' is probably inaccurate, but intentional; & that the grammar is colloquial: & gave him my kind regards — Oh Lud! I cannot write any more letters about Orlando or anything else — so if she could — but don't let her bother — I daresay she has enough to do —

Can we come on Thursday afternoon wont do? & then after dinner.

Nelly. being told about Mr & Mrs Nicolson, wished when giving up her day & her love & her play & all. such as the radiance & glamour.

Is this a dry letter?

There! if you want corrects, you can have them.

We would very much like to see you on Wednesday, but can't manage a matinée - for one thing I always shove them in very busy at the Ren, & my services are in demand - how like it! Doing up parcels, please remember other end, Mrs. Woolf, with baghues coming in & out & saying well Good bye all when they leave: & we all say good bye. And then I'm seven a

Sunday

Please attend —

Leonard has his journey to done out on Thursday. Could we dine somewhere after your Casting, & either see Hunch a go to a play?
Let me know, would you, like a card, & don't read into this brief words any address tails or viper's gall. They are plain sense. I've been walking in Epping Forest.
I think evening is more translucent & vibrating, & whatever the word is mean afternoon — But don't hesitate to choose what you would.

Here are some remarks upon Orlando & Viola that may amuse you – but with you bring them back, as I must answer the donkeys – nice good donkeys.

I have got into a muddle; (only having to buy a dress) & shan't be in till 4 on Friday: so, will you come & wait in the Studio if I'm out (I'll try to be earlier)
